Contents

List of Illustrations vii

Preface ix

A Note on Translation and Place-Names xv

Introduction 1

1. The Constitution of Town and Land 17
   Land and Council / 17
   Citizenship and Municipal Government / 27

2. Lord of Land and Subjects 46
   Building the Seignorial Regime / 46
   Preserving the Seignorial Regime / 58

3. The Emergence of Absolute Monarchy and Town Liberty 71

4. The Habsburg Sale of Jurisdiction 99
   The Process of Sale / 99
   The Extent of the Sales / 119

5. In Pursuit of Justice and Jurisdiction 130

6. The Economic Pleasures and Perils of Liberty 158

7. War and Taxes 186

Conclusion 207

Appendix A. Towns and Villages Responding to the Relaciones Questionnaire, 1575–80 211

Appendix B. Glossary of Castilian Terms 228

Notes 233

Bibliography 281

Index 299

Illustrations

Figures

1. Municipal Boundaries, 1972 xi
2. Municipal Government in the Americas 36
3. Some Members of the Count of Tendilla's Family 68
4. Organization Chart of Castilian Administration 82
5. Estremera, 1752 103
6. Changing Proportions of Towns and Villages in New Castile 120
7. Instruments of Judicial Punishment in Spanish Towns: Stocks 136
8. Instruments of Judicial Punishment in Spanish Towns: Shackle and Leg Chain 136
9. Hueva 138
10. Fuentenovilla 139
11. Pastrana 140
12. Organization Chart of the Castilian Judiciary 145

Maps

1. Development of the Villages in the Town of Casarrubios del Monte, 1500, 1625, 1734, and 1752 5
2. Miralcampo and Meco, 1430, 1512, and 1575 20
3. Cuba: Cities and Towns Founded by Governor Diego Velázquez before 1518 44
4. Two New Villages in the Kingdom of Granada: Almayater and Guadahortuna, 1570 49
5. Towns Acquired through Inheritance and Purchase by the Count of Tendilla, 1479–1512 60
6. Municipal Territories in the Western Tajo River Basin, c. 1500 76
7. The Evolution of Purchases by the Count of Tendilla, His Son (Marquis of Mondéjar), and His Grandson (Francisco de Mendoza), 1512, 1530, 1545, and 1561 102
8. Detail of the Mendoza Family Purchases and Their Despoblados 104

9. Carrión de los Ajos, 1575 107
10. Evolution of the Villages in the Town of Alcalá de Henares, 1500–1752 118
11. Valenzuela and Almagro, c. 1600 176